

Walter Phillips Gallery exhibition recordings. -- WPG03

1977-2006; predominant 1981-2004.

205 audio cassettes and 30 video cassettes.

The Walter Phillips Gallery began to consistently record events associated with exhibitions in 1981. Gallery programming included at least one talk related to an exhibit, usually by the artist(s), but in some cases a curator. Talks were generally informal and include information about the artists work, methods, ideas, and background. Some of the hundreds of artists featured in the series include Jeff Wall, Iain Baxter, Antonio Muntadas, Attila Richard Lukacs, Jin-me Yoon, Rebecca Belmore, Hildergard Westercamp, Paul Wong, Janet Cardiff and George Miller.

The gallery's strong emphasis on multi-media art resulted in some art works created specifically for exhibitions, that have been retained in this series. Examples include Muntadas' 1989 Stadium audio and video elements, and video created by Stefaan Decostere specifically on themes of tourism in Banff.

The gallery also programmed sound art and performance art, such as the major exhibitions Monologue/Dialogue and Radio Rethink, which were recorded.

Series consists of audio and videotapes of artists and curator's talks related to exhibitions, recordings of sound art and performance art, and elements of multi-media installations created specifically for gallery exhibits.
